Old Business:

- Treasurer's Report: Vacant- Previous checking balance $1,472.31, savings balance $10.00, petty cash, $100.00, totaling $1582.31. The retreat took in $520.00 giving us a total of $2,102.31. Retreat expenses were $613.05 on food and supplies, $42.56 on the electrical bill, $50.00 on firewood, & $30.00 on a refunded registration, totaling $735.61. Leaving us a total balance of $1,366.70. So we lost approximately $216.00 at the retreat.

We had 26 people register at the retreat, and only 17 people camp there for the weekend. 8 of these people we committee members or volunteers.

I will help out in any way possible with the transition of the committee. The bank we use is Clearfield Financial in Brentwood Town Square. We have a large amount of supplies left over. Including a 55 gallon drum grill, coffee maker, drink cooler, cooking utensils, paper supplies, soda, & water. We will hand over these items to the new committee members.

We also have a great relationship with Raccoon Creek State Park and The Pittsburgh Pirates.

I am grateful that I had the opportunity to spend over 4 years on this committee.
